The Town of Brooks requires demolition companies to hire a licensed exterminator to exterminate rodents before building demolitions. Before demolition, pre-demolition extermination must be performed, and the demolition contractor and owner must get a certificate confirming that the demolition was adequate. The Town of Brooks must have a copy of this certificate before starting work.

Upon receipt of the documentation and certificate, the Owner certifies that all utilities have been disconnected and terminated and that the septic tank, if any, location has been clearly marked.
